

Success in Telling Your Story Resources

Success in Telling Your Story

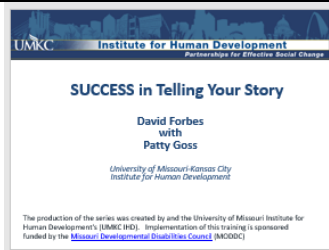

The purpose of “Success in Telling your Story” Storyboard, Workbook and Training is to teach self-advocates, family members, and supporters how to effectively tell their personal stories. Telling our stories is important because it helps us to connect with others, to advocate for our needs, it relieves stress, changes lives, and stimulates action. You learn about the eight ingredients to be successful in telling your story.

Success in Telling Your Story - Storyboard & Workbook

This storyboard and workbook is used to learn the ingredients to have success in telling your story. You will learn about the eight ingredients, see storyboard examples, and add your own information to write your own story.

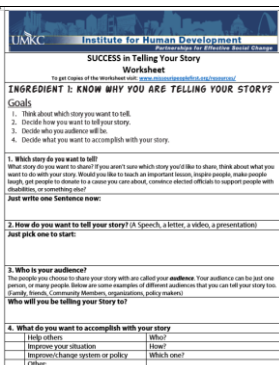

<https://www.missouripeoplefirst.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Success-in-Telling-Story-Storyboard-and-Workbook-1.pdf>

Success in Telling Your Story - Training PowerPoint

This training and PowerPoint is designed to help you get started using the Storyboard and Workbook.

<https://www.missouripeoplefirst.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Success-in-Telling-Your-Story-Training-PowerPoint.pdf>

Success in Telling Your Story - Worksheet

The worksheet can be used if you do not want to write in storyboard & workbook or if you have a second story you want to tell. It has all the same questions but does not include the storyboard.

<https://www.missouripeoplefirst.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Final-Success-in-Telling-Your-Story-Worksheet.pdf>

To learn more visit our website Resource Page at www.missouripeoplefirst.org