

STEERING COMMITTEE

Resources

Tuesday, March 8, 2022

Location: The Holiday Inn & Suites 1509 Jefferson Street. Jefferson City, MO 65109

Guest: Jess Bax & Caitlin Bartley (Division) Leigh Anne Haun (MODDC) Robyn Schelp (MoDE Missouri Disability Empowerment)

	Missouri Quality Outcomes Townhall meetings- Caitlin Bartley, MO Division of Developmental Disabilities, National Core Indicators Project Coordinator
	Calendar of Up Coming Events https://www.missouripeoplefirst.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/SA-Event.pdf
	Division of DD Update, Jess Bax, Director Provide updates on their budget - FY 23 DI Summary
	Legislative Advocacy -Robyn Schelp from Missouri Disability Empowerment Missouri MoDE (moempower.com) MoDE Missouri Disability Empowerment
	People First Priorities/Plan People First of Missouri five Priorities Summary -Transportation -Financial Wellness -Self-determination: Being respected as people and allowed to make our own choices -Supported Decision Making and guardianship education and awareness. -Housing and being supported to live where a person want to live
	Get the Shot Today: SABE AUCD CDC COVID Mini-Grant SABE Covid Grant
	Leigh Anne Haun- DRLD Day & MODDC updates: 10 Easy Ways to Connect with Legislators
	Success in Telling your Story The purpose of “Success in Telling your Story” Storyboard, Workbook and Training is to teach self-advocates, family members, and supporters how to effectively tell their personal stories. Telling our stories is important because it helps us to connect with others, to advocate for our needs, it relieves stress, changes lives, and stimulates action. You learn about the eight ingredients to be successful in telling your story.